

J.P. Kennedy Is Dead At 81

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Joseph Patrick Kennedy, patriarch of an ill-starred American political dynasty, died today, losing an eight-year struggle for life. He was 81.

In a brief announcement from the Kennedy family compound on Cape Cod overlooking Nantucket Sound, a family spokesman said death came at 11:05 a.m. (EST).

His wife Rose and other members of the family were with him at the time, the spokesman said.

Suffered Stroke

A financier and one of the nation's wealthiest men, Kennedy had been partially paralyzed since suffering a stroke in Palm Beach, Fla., on Dec. 19, 1961.

The former ambassador had suffered setbacks from time to time since then, and had been growing progressively weaker since sustaining a mild heart attack Saturday.

The founding father of the Kennedy clan suffered through the assassinations of his sons John and Robert after losing his eldest, Joseph P. Jr., in World War II.

John was killed in Dallas, Tex., Nov. 22, 1963. Robert was shot in Los Angeles June 5, 1968, and died the next day. He had just received a boost in his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination with a victory in the California primary.

Navy Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. was killed in action Aug. 12, 1944. He was piloting a plane assigned to knock out German V2 rocket bases when the craft exploded.

One Surviving Son

Edward, the youngest and only surviving son, had a close brush with death June 19, 1964, in a plane crash. His back was broken, but he recovered after a six-month stay in hospitals.

Tragedy of another sort hit the family last summer when a car driven by Edward plunged into a tidal pond on Chappaquiddick Island off the Massachusetts coast.

Mrs. Phil Hart Among Protest Aides Arrested

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Philip A. Hart, wife of the Michigan senator, heiress, pilot, anthropology student and mother of eight, has achieved yet another distinction—her arrest during a peace demonstration at the Pentagon.

Explaining her first brush with the law except for a few minor traffic violations, the slender, 47-year-old blonde said: "The point of it was to have a mass for peace to bring the idea of peace and love of God into this house of death."

Instead, along with 185 others at the "Mass for Peace" she was arrested. Charged with violating a General Services Administration rule against blocking a corridor, Jane Hart pleaded not guilty.

How did Mr. Hart, the senator, feel about his wife's antiwar activities last Thursday?

"He didn't say much," Mrs. Hart said. "I don't remember what he said, actually." Mrs. Hart, however, said she would be "enthusiastic" about a repeat Pentagon demonstration, calling the Defense headquarters a "house of death."

Mrs. Hart was released when she posted $25 bond. She and the others are to appear in court Jan. 14.

Weather

ESCANABA AND VICINITY: Occasional rain and mild today, high in lower 50s. Cloudy and colder tonight and Wednesday with chance of snow flurries. Low in the upper 20s tonight. Sun sets at 5:14 p. m. rises Wednesday at 7:56 a. m.

Probabilities of precipitation: 90 per cent today, 80 per cent tonight and 40 per cent Wednesday.

chusetts coast and Mary Jo Kopechne, 28, of Washington, a former secretary of Robert, drowned.

The accident and its repercussions clouded the political future of the senator, who did not report the mishap for more than eight hours and who was given a two-month suspended sentence for leaving the scene of an accident.

One of the five daughters born to Kennedy and the former Rose Fitzgerald of Boston also died violently. Mrs. Kathleen Kennedy Haarrington perished with three others in a plane crash in France in May, 1948.

Early Millionaire

Born in East Boston Sept. 6, 1888, to moderately wealthy parents, Kennedy attended Catholic schools as a youngster.

It was said that when he was graduated from Harvard College in 1912, he expressed the ambition to be a millionaire by the time he was 35. He made his first million well before he reached that age.

With borrowed money, he gained control of Columbia Trust Co. and became its president at age 25.

He branched out, deriving his fortune not only from banking but also the stock market, real estate, the sale of liquor and interests in motion pictures and movie houses.

Manuel pleaded guilty Monday to a charge of larceny by conversion and a charge of possession of stolen property. He had earlier pleaded innocent and was scheduled to go on trial Wednesday.

Manuel, 25, was charged with renting a house trailer in Ypsilanti last summer, driving it to California and abandoning it, and with possessing five of 18 rings stolen from an Ypsilanti apartment last spring.

Manuel allegedly made the trip to California with Collins, who is accused of first-degree murder in the death of Eastern Michigan University coed Karen Sue Beineman. Miss Beineman was the last of seven young women to be killed in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area in just over two years.

Manuel told Washtenaw County Circuit Judge William F. Ager that he received the rings from Collins, but did not know where Collins got them.

He also said he pleaded guilty to the charge concerning the trailer because he knew that when he and Collins rented the trailer, they would not be returning it.

The trailer was found abandoned near Salinas, Calif. Judge Ager continued Manuel's $10,000 bond pending sentencing.

Warning Issued On Oil-Gas Mix

CURTIS (AP) — State Police say 270 gallons of a gasoline-fuel oil mixture have been mistakenly sold as fuel oil in the Upper Peninsula community of Curtis since Nov. 30.

Police warned Monday that the mixture could explode if used as fuel oil.

Milliken Reveals Crime Probe Plans

Gov. G. Milliken said today he plans to make "suitable legislative proposals" for an independent state agency to conduct "an all-out investigative effort against organized crime and public corruption."

The proposed, four-member State Investigative Commission, Milliken said, would not be a "little FBI" and would not, necessarily, mean elimination of the grand jury system.

Milliken repeated, however, a past support for gradual shift from the grand jury to some other form of investigative and indicting system.

Far-Reaching Authority

The commission would have far-reaching authority to probe, but would not be allowed to prosecute. Nevertheless, Milliken said, "it would be a major tool in fighting organized crime."

"I don't envision a little FBI in this case. It's very carefully constituted to stay away from the partisan field. With very elaborate precautions, we would not expect this to be a political operation."

Announced today at Milliken's weekly news conference, the proposal drew prompt endorsement from Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

As described in a statement prepared by Milliken's special Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, the ANN ARBOR (AP) — Andrew Manuel, former roommate and traveling companion of John Norman Collins, faces sentencing Dec. 10 on two larceny charges.

Moon Landing Program Set

Everything In 'Ship-Shape' On Final Rundown

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Circling the moon in perfect orbit, Apollo 12's explorers inspected their landing craft today and declared it "ship-shape" for a daring bullseye landing on the craggy surface early Wednesday.

Charles Conrad Jr. and Alan L. Bean slipped through a connecting tunnel into the fragile lander they call Intrepid, leaving Richard F. Gordon Jr. alone in the command ship Yankee Clipper.

Ready To Go

After an 80-minute check, Bean reported: "We've checked out all the things we're supposed to and they're all ship-shape. We're ready to go."

Conrad and Bean hope to set Intrepid down precisely in a 400-foot-wide circle in the Ocean of Storms on the western side of the moon's visible face at 1:53 a.m. EST Wednesday. Their goal is the first detailed scientific exploration of the lunar surface.

Inspected Landing Craft

Conrad and Bean inspected the landing craft six hours after Apollo 12 swept into lunar orbit which prompted outbursts of awe and enthusiasm from all three as they gazed at the wild and wondrous landscape below.

"Wowee!" Bean shouted Monday night. "Boy it's beautiful down there. Look at that crater."

Through color television, the astronauts shared their magnificent view with earthlings a quarter-million miles away.

Separate Set

The 30-minute telecast followed the course of Apollo 12 as it moved across a narrow band, moving from east to west. Large and small craters, rugged mountains and flat plains were visible as the camera panned across the desolate landscape.

"Even in earth orbit at night or in the daytime, the sky was never as black as it is here," Conrad reported. "This is the blackest black I ever saw."

For Conrad and Bean the view from 70 miles high was a preview for their attempt to land on the eastern shore of the Ocean of Storms.

They are to separate the landing craft Intrepid from the command ship Yankee Clipper at 11:16 p.m. tonight. For more than 2½ hours they will keep the world in suspense as they execute maneuvers on the dangerous and difficult descent.

Their goal is a pinpoint landing near an unnamed crater, an area described by Conrad before the flight as "gently rolling, pocked with small craters, but relatively smooth."

Work On Lunar Surface To Be Mostly Scientific

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Except for six minutes to erect an American flag and eight minutes to position a color television camera, the Apollo 12 moon explorers plan to devote all their time to science on their first moon walk Wednesday.

Astronaut Charles Conrad Jr. plans to be outside three hours and 14 minutes during the initial stroll, while Alan L. Bean is expected to be outside two hours, 23 minutes.

Conrad Out First

Wednesday's excursion will begin with Conrad backing out of the hatch of the moonlander Intrepid at 6:02 a.m. EST. A second stroll begins at 12:32 a.m. Thursday, when Conrad and Bean visit the now dead Surveyor 3 spacecraft.

First color television should begin at 6:03 a.m. Wednesday after Conrad, standing on a ladder, opens a compartment in which the camera is mounted. Bean will turn the television on to show Conrad's descent to the moon's surface.

While Bean films Conrad with a 70 millimeter movie camera, the Apollo 12 commander will spend six minutes getting used to the low gravity, jumping up and down and testing his balance.

Sample Of Rock

Using a scoop with an extension handle, Conrad will pick up a sample of rock and soil, put it in a bag and send the bundle in a container up a clothesline-like conveyor belt to Bean.

Conrad then will snap still photos as Bean starts down the ladder at 6:32 a.m.

After Bean familiarizes himself with the one-sixth gravity, Conrad will spring open an antenna which looks like an upside-down umbrella. Officials hope the antenna, to be activated for the second moon walk, will improve communications with earth.

Bean will mount the TV camera on a tripod 20 feet from the lander. Then he and Conrad push a staff into the ground and attach a nylon American flag to it.

To Erect "Window Shade"

As Conrad continues to align the antenna, Bean is to erect an aluminum-foil "window shade" attached to a staff. Scientists hope the device will capture atomic particles streaming from the sun.

Both astronauts then will take out the scientific instruments contained in two subpackages. Using a long-handled tool, Bean will open a case containing plutonium 238, an atomic fuel element, and insert it into a nuclear electric generator that powers the instruments.

Bean, carrying the experiment instruments and generator, and Conrad will walk to a site about 1,000 feet west of the lander craft. There, they will distribute the instruments.

Return To Craft

After photographing the experiment site, the astronauts will return to the landing craft and collect rock samples with long-handled tongs en route, stowing them in saddle bags attached to their waists.

Back at the Intrepid, Conrad and Bean will put the saddle bags in a box, then Bean will drive a core tube several inches into the moon's surface to collect a vertical profile of the lunar soil. It will be placed in the rock box.

Base To Remain

It is believed Japan has agreed to permit the effective use of Okinawa as a U.S. base in the event of an emergency involving the defense of Japan and areas vital to the defense of Japan.

Sen. Ford Raps Griffin Stand On News Coverage

DETROIT (AP) — House Minority Leader Gerald Ford Monday contradicted fellow Michigan Republican and Senate Minority Whip Robert Griffin in evaluating news coverage from Washington.

Ford told a Detroit news conference, "News coverage on Capitol Hill is not distorted."

Earlier in the day, Griffin, also in Detroit, had said that at times press coverage was biased and that he had encountered difficulty getting coverage for his fight against Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas.

Today's Chuckle

In bookstores today, it seems that the books that are not dirty, are dusty.

Long Workday Ahead For U.S. Space Heroes

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 12's astronauts, flying the riskiest space flight ever, face a grueling 20-hour workday that safety rules would forbid to an airline pilot or bus driver.

An airline pilot on a routine flight must rest after eight hours and let someone else take over.

Nine - Hour Flight

Charles Conrad Jr., and Alan L. Bean must fly for nine hours and still be alert enough to land on the moon and walk its surface in bulky suits. There's no one to take over.

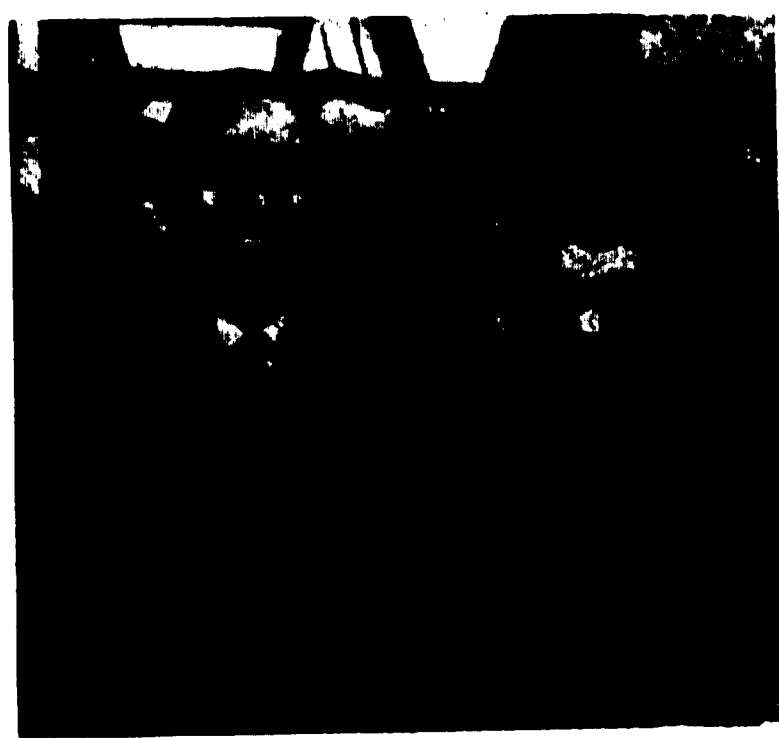

A bus driver crossing the country must knock off after 10 hours. The federal government says that's his safety limit.

Richard F. Gordon Jr. must fly for 19 hours, most of it alone, and still stay fresh enough to perform complex navigation problems while orbiting the moon.

Gordon Orbits Alone

Conrad, Gordon and Bean wake up at 4:22 p.m. EST today. During the next 20 hours, Conrad and Bean will land on the moon, get out of the spacecraft and walk the lunar surface for 3½ hours. Gordon will spend much of the time alone orbiting the moon in a spacecraft that

Japanese Eying Okinawa's Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — An agreement returning Okinawa to Japanese control in 1972 is expected to leave open the question of possible future American use of the U.S. military base on the island for nuclear weapons.

No official announcement has been made on the tough question of nuclear weapons on Okinawa, but the matter has been settled in principle, according to reliable sources.

Talks To Begin

Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato and President Nixon are to begin talks Wednesday on returning Okinawa to Japan within three years, although it will be Friday before any word of the nuclear issue is released.

It is believed Japan has agreed to permit the effective use of Okinawa as a U.S. base in the event of an emergency involving the defense of Japan and areas vital to the defense of Japan.

What would constitute "effective use" would not be decided until the circumstance arose, and then only after full consultation between the two governments, it was learned. Terms of the agreement are expected to be very general.

Base To Remain

It already had been agreed that the military base will remain as a U.S. facility, with the presence of the nuclear weapons the controversial item.

Technical talks were conducted here Monday between Richard Snider, U.S. special minister in charge of Okinawa affairs, and Fumihiko Togo, director general of the American affairs bureau at Japan's ministry of foreign affairs.

A spokesman said afterwards that most of the issues had been resolved. Officially, however, the spokesman said the hard core issue remained—how, when and if nuclear weapons may be used from the U.S. base on the island which the United States has held since late in World War II.

Economic Issues

There also were economic issues to be discussed by Nixon and Sato, who arrived here Monday following a violence-marred departure from Tokyo.

Business interests have asked for such things as equal treatment for American and Ryukyuan corporations to do business throughout Japan and protection of their dollar assets. They asked for a waiver of any retroactive tax claims from Japan, recognition of existing licenses for foreign investment and protection of their real estate leases.

Bessemer Man Dies On Thruway

DUNKIRK, N.Y. (AP) — A 70-year-old Michigan man stopped his automobile in a driving lane of the state thruway near this Lake Erie city late Monday and fell dead of an apparent heart attack, State Police said.

Troopers said John J. Stranahan of Bessemer, was alone in his car when stricken. Traffic on the superhighway was light at the time and no accident resulted, they said.

Stranahan was found slumped over the steering wheel by a trooper.

State Asks Clean-Up:

City Power Plant Called Air Polluter

The continuing effort of public health agencies to protect and even upgrade the quality of the air we breathe has brought a second citation against the City of Escanaba.

The city has been notified by the Michigan Department of Public Health that the municipal electric generating plant on the north shore is polluting the air. A few weeks ago the city was advised that its asphalt mix plant was violating state air pollution control standards.

The city is taking steps to correct both operations and bring them into compliance with state requirements.

On Nov. 3 City Manager George Harvey was advised by Bernard D. Bloomfield, assistant chief, division of occupational health, Michigan Department of Health that:

Fly Ash Problem
"It is apparent on visual observation that the electric plant is in violation of our Rules and Regulations which concurs with the estimate of the Upper Peninsula Power Co. that the emissions are approximately 0.85 pounds per 1,000 pounds of fuel gas."

The power plant is owned by the city and is operated by the U. P. Power Co.

The problem is the control of the emission of fly ash, and the city is asked by the state to review control plans with the Power Co. and commit itself to correction plans on or before Jan. 1, 1970.

City Manager Harvey advised the City Council that the changes to eliminate reinjection of ash in the operation of the plant will cost "between $8,000 and $10,000." The plans will have to be approved as workable by the state as the first step in the correction of the pollution.

The notice about the electric power plant brings to three the Opposing the ordinance is the Mead Corp., which has scheduled the construction of a kraft paper mill as part of the Escanaba Paper Co. expansion in Wells Township.

Mead officials say there will not be an odor problem but there may be some odors in event of mechanical or human failure.

The Save Our Air Committee seeks adoption of a Delta County ordinance that will assure control of odors as well as other contaminants with authority for control vested in a board composed of local persons appointed by the Supervisors.

Hearing Tonight

Public hearing in connection with consideration of an air pollution control ordinance for Delta County will be held at 8 tonight in the County Building in Escanaba.

The hearing, scheduled by the Delta County Board of Supervisors, follows submission of a proposed air pollution control ordinance from the Delta County Save Our Air Committee to the Board of Supervisors.

As it stands, the proposed ordinance is opposed by the Mead Corp., parent concern of the Escanaba Paper Co., which has scheduled construction of a kraft paper mill here as part of its expansion plans.

number of citations by the state in the Escanaba area.

Dust Problem
Besides the two notices to the city, the Chicago & North Western Railway has been advised to correct the ore dust situation at its new iron ore handling facility on the north shore. The dust has brought a number of complaints from residents of the area and the North Western reports that it is working to correct the problem.

The concern for clean air in Escanaba and Delta County includes the elimination of disagreeable odors as well as excessive smoke, dust and fly ash; and a group of citizens organized as the Delta County Save Our Air Committee are pushing for a county air pollution control ordinance.

The Delta County Board of Supervisors has the proposed ordinance under consideration and has a public hearing scheduled tonight at 8 in the County Building in Escanaba.

Mrs. Ahlquist Dies On Monday

Mrs. Hilma E. Ahlquist, 96, of Bismarck, N.D., died Monday at the Missouri Slope Nursing Home.

She was born on May 1, 1873, in Sweden and resided in Escanaba from 1893 to June of 1958, where she was a charter member of the Bethany Lutheran Church. Her husband, Nels, preceded her in death.

Survivors include two daughters, Miss Ruth Ahlquist of Green Bay and Mrs. S. A. (Beatrice) Jacobson of Bismarck and two nieces, Mrs. T. Patton of Youngstown, Ohio, and Mrs. Sigma Armstrong of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The body is being shipped to the Anderson Funeral Home and funeral arrangements will be completed later today.

Downtown Area Traffic Change Set For Action

Consideration of downtown traffic changes heads the agenda for the Escanaba City Council when it meets at 8 p. m. Thursday in the City Hall.

The Council has had the subject before it for consideration in the past and has received a recommendation from the Council-appointed Safety Advisory Committee. The Council also has a recommendation on traffic changes from a committee of downtown merchants.

"It is my intention to return this to the Council at their next regular meeting for a decision on the original recommendation reported by the Safety Committee with refinements by the Planning Commission," said City Manager George Harvey.

He said he would recommend to the Council that it accept the original report although "there is merit to certain parts of the proposal of the merchants" and "as we move forward in attempting to correct these traffic situations, we certainly will institute and put into effect their proposals."

Other matters to come before the Council Thursday night will include action to authorize demolishing of a building at 1817 1/2 N. 19th St.; and on a recommendation of the Planning Commission to adopt Precinct Plan No. 5A.

FAA Films Set For Air Terminal

John Thorne, Escanaba Airport manager, announced today that two aviation films produced by the FAA will be presented Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the new Escanaba Air Terminal.

The titles of the films are "The Other Passenger" and "Charley." Anyone interested in aviation is invited to view the films free of charge.

Students To Aid Dystrophy Drive

Holy Name High School students have again selected Muscular Dystrophy as their service project. It was announced today by Jim Viscusi, general chairman, Delta County Chapter, Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc. Their house to house campaign will be Nov. 25 and 26. Members of the Key Club of Holy Name High School will assist Brother Mark in assigning students special areas to cover.

The Northern Michigan National Bank is acting as official depository for the campaign. Persons wishing to contribute, who have not been contacted by a student from Holy Name, may send their donation directly to the bank.

Muscular dystrophy is a chronic disease which gradually weakens the voluntary muscles until the patient is confined to a wheelchair and eventually to his bed. All patients, children or adults, as they become weaker can fall prey to simple ailments, all of which can prove fatal... even a common cold.

Locally, muscular dystrophy patients receive wheelchairs, braces, hospital beds, lifts and other orthopedic equipment. All fees for examinations at an M.D. clinic are paid by the Association.

Public Meeting Called At Garden Over Schools

GARDEN—An open meeting concerning the closing of the Big Bay de Noc schools in Garden, Nahma and Gales will be held at 8 p. m. today at the Garden Community Building.

The meeting was scheduled by the Big Bay de Noc Education Association, which Monday morning refused to report to classes after the Board of Education failed to respond to an ultimatum issued by the association Friday.

The ultimatum said if agreement on a new contract was not reached by 11 p. m. Sunday, Nov. 14, teachers would not be in class Monday. About 800 children in the district are out of classes.

Major Bags Sable Coat

K. I. SAWYER AFB — Maj. Theodore R. Sudinsky, a dentist attached to K. I. Sawyer's 800th Medical Group, took an inexpensive way out in getting his wife a sable coat. He trapped the fur himself over a three-year period while stationed at Eielson Air Force Base, Alaska.

Before his assignment at Eielson, Sudinsky hadn't trapped since the age of nine.

Sudinsky brought the skins home to skin and stretch, and recalls that the drying process after skinning took from three to 10 days. Once skinned and stretched, he sent the pelts to a furrier in Portland, Ore., to tan and turn the 81 martin pelts into a sable coat for his wife valued at $8,000.

Sudinsky also trapped an Alaskan brown bear on Kodiak Island, and a black bear near Eielson. He also trapped enough beaver for a vest.

At Sawyer, Sudinsky rises at 4:30 a. m. on working days to walk approximately four miles while checking his 25 traps within a three mile radius of the base. He has trapped 18 muskrat, 2 raccoon, a fox and a mink in the vicinity of Sawyer over the past 2 1/2 years.

Deer Hunters Round - Up

The Daily Press welcomes news about hunters, events in camp, and who got deer. Phone deer hunting items to 794-1021.

Tim and Dale Flynn each shot a buck while hunting out of Camp Dogtoen on the Stonington Peninsula opening day.

John L. Johnson, Sr., 204 S. 18th St., Escanaba, bagged an eight-point buck, his first, while hunting Monday morning in the Bark River area.

David Oulund, a senior at Gladstone High School, bagged a three-point 110 pounder while hunting opening day in the LaBranche area.

Robert Casey, 17, of Wells, connected with a twelve-point-er while hunting out of his grandfather's camp. The deer was his first. It weighed 185 pounds.

Father and son tallied up a buck each in hunting on Saturday. Harvey Beauchamp of Escanaba Rte. 2, and his son, Keith, 15, were hunting at the Beauchamp camp near Wilson when Harvey brought down a 9-point 230-pounder, and Keith bagged a four-point buck weighing 130 pounds. Keith is in the 10th grade at Escanaba Area High School.

Paul Eriksson of Stonington, hunting Sunday near Pentecost Point on the Stonington Peninsula, brought down a six-point 150-pound buck.

Dwight Harwood of Rapid River hardly had to leave home to get his buck on Monday. He bagged a four-pointer weighing 120 pounds while hunting near Rapid River.

Gary Curtis was the only lucky hunter in a party of four when he bagged a beautiful six-point 170 pounder late Saturday morning. He was hunting in the Hardwood Area.

Bakery Given UMTA Award

ST. IGNACE — The first Presidential Award of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association has been presented to Our Own Bakeries, Inc., of Marquette.

Robert Sayles of Newberry, president of UMTA, presented the award to Leskie Roberts, vice president-sales for the bakery. Sayles said the award is given for leadership in community efforts and an investment in regional association programs. He said he expects it will be made annually.

League Endorses Local Ordinance On Air Controls

The League of Women Voters of Escanaba and surrounding area has made an in-depth study of the air pollution problem. The study included the causes of air pollution, its effects on health and environment, and legislation on various levels of government—federal, state, and local.

The Federal Clean Air Act, as amended in 1967, designated that air quality standards be defined and provided federal financial and technical assistance to states to develop devices to control emission of air pollutants. The Act stated that state and local governments must assume the basic responsibility for preventing and controlling air pollution.

The League is asking the Delta County Board of Supervisors for the adoption and enforcement of an effective local legislation to prevent and control air pollution. The League believes existing state and federal legislation is not sufficient without local laws and enforcement.

The League membership chose air pollution as its local study item at its annual meeting last Spring.

Timber, Inc., Begins Project In Peninsula

NEWBERRY—A concentrated effort, through cooperation between industry and government, has been launched to determine if effective steps can be taken to improve the forest economy of the Upper Peninsula.

There is a general acceptance by operators, by wood-using industry, land owners and the communities in forested areas that the margin of profit is too slim to encourage development and to bring desirable revenues to operator and community, said Peter Grieves, manager of Upper Great Lakes Timber, Inc.

Timber, Inc., now in its second year, was authorized as a forest study project by the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission, a federal commission formed to help with economic development projects in northern sections of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

After a year of trial and exploration, Timber, Inc., is ready for practical studies and demonstrations, Grieves said.

Funded By EDA
Timber, Inc., is funded through Economic Development Administration and under contract to the State Department of Commerce, authority for the program in the state of Michigan.

Garden Peninsula

Briefs
Gilmer Netherton who has operated "Pete's Bar," for the past 16 years has sold the business to Ernest Myers, originally of Newberry. Mr. Myers took over Nov. 2.

Meudie LeBresh and son Butch of Rochester have arrived at their home at Garden Corners and will be hunting here and in the Cornell area.

Mrs. William A. Ward Sr. and Mrs. Jon Halvorson spent the weekend at their homes here. They returned to their studies at Bay de Noc College and St. Francis Hospital Monday morning.

Tom Spaulding and Alex Busch are hunting from the Richard Spaulding home in Kates Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas and daughters Teresa and Kalene of Leslie are visiting and hunting from the Charles Rasmussen home in Kates Bay.

Birth
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Plante have received word from Clark Air Base in the Philippines that Lt. and Mrs. Gerald Yantz are the parents of a son born Saturday, Nov. 15, weighing 8 pounds, 8 ounces. Mrs. Yantz is the former Carol Plante of Garden. Lt. Yantz is serving with the U. S. Air Force.

Mrs. Frank (Oneda) White of Milwaukee shot a doe on Sunday. She and her husband are hunting in the area and staying at the Bay de Noc Motel at Garden Corners.

John Lester bagged an 8 point buck while hunting in the Kates Bay area.

Word has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen of Fairport of the death of Mrs. Maimie Schneider of National City. Mrs. Schneider, 89, was well known in this area as she came to visit the Allens and hunted and fished in the area for several years.

PTO Meeting
The Big Bay de Noc PTO will meet at the Garden Elementary School Thursday evening, Nov. 20 at 7:30 p. m. Rev. E. Sitko, of Nahma speaker for the evening will present a film. Lunch will be served by the Garden committee.

Bark River

Birth
Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert McGuire, 1854 Western Ave., Green Bay, are the parents of a son, Gregory John, born Nov. 8, at 4:53 a. m. at St. Vincent's Hospital, Green Bay. The infant weighed 8 pounds, 11 ounces and is the couple's first child. The mother is the former Diane DeBaker of Green Bay and the father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester McGuire of Bark River.

Successful Hunters
Deer kills reported so far are: Leo and Leon Dombrowski, William L. Nelson and Herman Kleiman, Powers; Mark Motto, Harland Christiansen, LeRoy LeHuelier, John Britton and Ed Vandermissem, Wilson; Bob Jenkins, Gregg Meyers and Ed Kwarciany, Bark River.

HOLIDAY CHANGE?
LONDON (AP)—The British Government has turned down a suggestion made in Parliament that Christmas should always be celebrated on the same day each year—the last Sunday in December. Sponsors said this would avoid industrial disruption when Dec. 25 falls in mid-week, but the government ruled that most people prefer to keep to the traditional date.

gan. Its findings, however, will be available to all sections within the commission, so all work in The Upper Peninsula has tri-state significance.

The board of directors is chosen from timber producers, industry administrators, and agency personnel. The president is Frank Hoholik, president and executive officer of Manistique Pulp and Paper Co.

Meeting Called At Rapid River
Between 30 and 40 woods producers and other interested persons are expected to attend a meeting in Jack's Restaurant at 7:30 p.m. Tues., Nov. 25 to hear and see evidence of new methods of higher production and lower cost.

The meeting here will be the second in a series planned for the Upper Peninsula.

At its recent general session, the board accepted the annual report submitted by Grieves and William Henriksen, field manager.

The big problem is one of management, one of being able to bring greater production into being and at the same time make actual operating economies, so there would be a double value to such operations, the report said.

Grieves and Henriksen have traveled to southern states and into Canada, observing new mechanical equipment under actual operating conditions. They have taken pictures of these machines and have attended symposiums on woods development.

Meetings Planned
One of the immediate results is a series of meetings within Upper Peninsula districts, so devised that producers from any given area will have a minimum of travel to attend. These sessions will demonstrate how economies are being effected in other areas and how the per unit cost of production has been sharply cut by one-man machine operation and a startling increase in cordage produced.

Closely allied with this is safety in operation and a new code has been developed and put into effect. This was the work of Timber, Inc., representatives last year, assisted by agency and department of labor people with the result that a code has been devised aimed at substantial reduction in woods injuries.

Briefly Told
There will be public high school religion at 7 p. m. Wednesday at Holy Name High School.

Bark River-Harris PTA will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the school. A new health film, "Looking at Children," will be shown.

The Golden Age Club will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Civic Center. A social will follow.

The Peninsula Plungers Investment Club will meet Nov. 20 at 7 p.m. in the basement meeting room of the Carnegie Library.

Meby, the Menominee County Library Bookmobile will make the following tours: Monday, Nov. 24, E. Stephenson, Cedar River, Cedar River School; Tuesday, Nov. 25, Wallace School; Wednesday, Nov. 26, E. Daggett, Roubel's Nursing Home, Carney Village, Nadeau Village.

Fraternal Order of Eagles will meet at 8 p.m. today at the clubrooms.

Delta County Republicans will meet in the Gladstone City Hall at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, one of a series being held each month in communities of the county. Party members and persons interested in the party will be welcomed.

Obituary
MRS. HELGA M. SWANSON
Complete funeral services for Mrs. Helga M. Swanson were held at 11 a.m. today at the Anderson Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Karl J. Hammar officiating. Burial was in Garden of Rest Cemetery.

This is the great value, but another result would be a corresponding decrease in workman's compensation rates, which are so high now that Michigan produced wood products are placed at a competitive disadvantage, Grieves said. Department of Labor representatives will participate in the safety section of the district meetings.

Upper Great Lakes Timber invites the full involvement of all interested parties to seek solutions to the many problems that beset the industry.

Project Planned
One of the projects now being set up is to get the cooperation of 12 producers to use new machinery and techniques on a trial basis. Grieves and Henriksen report considerable progress and anticipate being able to make an objective demonstration within a relatively short time.

What they plan is to lease a harvesting machine that should produce 18 to 24 cords a day for a one-man operation, as against the 4 to 6 cords a power saw operator can produce today.

It takes about 15 cords with this harvester to break even on all costs, including labor and insurance, and anything beyond that is additional gross profit for the operator. It is being used with success in Canada and both Grieves and Henriksen are convinced the harvester can be adaptable to Upper Peninsula woods conditions.

CLEANER AND MORE attractive play areas at the school in Rock is appreciated by the children and their mothers. The area south of the Rock School has been blacktopped at a cost of $1,675, with most of the expense involved in surfacing the recreation and playground section. Mayle Ridge Township contributed $558 toward the improvement of the recreation area. (Mrs. Albert Weldum Photo)

Gladstone Woman Hurt In Accident

Barbara Hoegh, 29, 505 Minneapolis Ave., Gladstone suffered minor injuries when the car she was driving collided with another car that had pulled out in front of her. She was treated by her family doctor, police reported.

The accident occurred Monday at 6:15 p.m. on U.S. 2 in Wells Township. According to troopers, the Hoegh vehicle was headed north on the roadway when a car driven by Robert Gibbons, 18, of Rte. 3, Rapid River pulled out in front of her and they collided.

The Hoegh auto was towed from the scene. No tickets were issued.

College Hearing By Legislature Scheduled Here

Bay de Noc Community College will host a public hearing on community colleges for the Upper Peninsula in Room 10 of west hall at 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Dr. Richard Rinehart, president at Bay de Noc, said a subcommittee of the House of Representatives of the Legislature scheduled this meeting — its only appearance in the Upper Peninsula — as part of a statewide inquiry into operations and future needs of Michigan's community colleges.

The committee is headed by Rep. Gerrit C. Hasper (D-Muskegon) and includes Rep. Thomas G. Ford, Sr. (R-East Grand Rapids) and Rep. Jack Faxon (D-Detroit). It is one of three subcommittees, each of which will conduct four public hearings.

Rep. Charles Varnum (R-Manistique) is a member of a committee which will hold hearings downtown.

Testimony will be taken on the structuring and financing of community colleges, planning and utilization of space and long range needs of the colleges and curriculum and technological needs.

Rep. George F. Montgomery (D-Detroit), chairman of the legislative committee, said industrialists, local government officials, economic development planners, educators and others directly concerned with the inquiry are being invited to testify, and that the public also is invited to contribute. Transcripts of oral presentations are to be submitted to the subcommittee clerk at the hearing in keeping with its rules.

There are 29 community colleges in Michigan, of which two are in the Upper Peninsula: Bay de Noc Community College in Escanaba and Gogebic Community College in Ironwood, both of which are developing new campuses.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

TV Under Fire

The Nixon Administration, which through the tongue of Vice President Spiro Agnew took on the demonstration set by calling it an "effete corps of impudent snobs who characterize themselves as intellectuals," has turned its guns on the national television networks.

Agnew, in the latest of a series of hard-hitting speeches which must by their very character have had the sanction of the president, charged the networks to "turn their critical powers on themselves — toward improving the quality and objectivity of news presentation."

"We would never trust such power over public opinion in the hands of an elected official," he said. "It is time we question it in the hands of a small and unelected elite. The great networks have dominated America's airwaves for decades; the people are entitled to a full accounting of their stewardship."

Agnew's remarks centered specifically around the "analysis" provided by network news immediately following President Nixon's Vietnam address, but apply to the entire scope of news coverage. Federal Communications Commission Chairman Dean Burch backed them up, commenting that they were "thoughtful, provocative and deserved careful consideration by the industry and public."

Network executives reacted defensively as might be expected.

"It is regrettable that the vice president of the United States would deny to television freedom of the press," said James Goodman, president of the National Broadcasting Co. (NBC). Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting Co. (CBS) said Agnew has made "an unprecedented attempt to intimidate a news medium," and American Broadcasting Co. (ABC) President Leonard Goldenson said his organization "will continue to report the news accurately and fully, confident in the ultimate judgment of the American public."

But while Agnew's speech may have been the latest criticism of network news coverage, it was not the first and the network leaders might do well to reexamine their own shops.

Criticism of the network coverage of the disturbances in Chicago at the time of the Democratic National Convention has been widespread and if Goldenson believes in the "ultimate judgment of the American public" then he had better take a closer look at public opinion surveys which show that better than 50 per cent of the people believe the convention riot coverage was slanted.

The nation's news media, because of its position, has been called the "fourth branch" of the government and the three national networks, perhaps more so than any other news gathering organizations, are in a position to exert the greatest influences. And if the writing, editing and selection of news and opinion for publication in a daily newspaper poses great problems, then that same process for a half-hour television newscast must be immense.

The networks have provided a great service to the American people by bringing them closer to the great news events and great leaders of the world than they have ever been before through on the spot and filmed coverage of the events which change the nation.

But with the power concentrated into just three networks, the dangers are easily apparent. Local stations must accept in total the national news program. There can be no editing or selection of the type afforded newspaper editors around the nation, who receive the reports of the two major wire services, for example.

And if the news broadcast is slanted, it reaches millions simultaneously. Even metropolitan newspapers can't approach those figures.

The nation's news media should reject and continue to oppose any attempt toward governmental control. But at the same time, there must be continued self-evaluation. Networks, radio and newspapers have a responsibility to comment, but it should be labeled as such. In news reports, there is no substitute for objectivity and no defense for bias.

The Plate Game

Michigan's new license plates for passenger cars went on sale Saturday, giving residents the opportunity to add a little "personalized" touch to their vehicles. For the first time, the state will use three prefix letters and three numbers. Past license plates have used two letters and four numbers, but the state was running out of combinations with the increase in vehicles and decided it must make the change.

Although vowels, which would have opened up ever greater possibilities — can you imagine an old spinster with SEX, on her car, or the University of Michigan football coach promoting MSU, or a Democrat labeled GOP — won't be allowed because of those embarrassing circumstances, the remaining letters still could produce some intriguing situations.

How about giving the president of a state university the letters SDS, initials for the radical Students for Democratic Society; or a stout American Legion member VFW; a Supreme Court judge KKK; an avowed bachelor MRS; hot-rodding drivers TNT; an NBC executive CBS and vice versa, or a hippie-type LSD.

All of these combinations won't be available, of course, in Delta County where the BCZ series will be the first to be sold. With some 10,000 cars to be licensed in the county, however, the letters will change quite frequently.

BCZ doesn't do much locally, unless there is a Boys Committee for Zebras or some other such organization. But if those are your personal initials — the Michigan Bell Telephone directory lists 22 families or individuals whose last names start with Z — your nameplates are on sale now.

"I'M SURE I HEARD FOOTSTEPS!"

Haynsworth 'Guilty' Of Gift To College?

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Lynching, one would have supposed, went out of fashion some time ago. But if the senators who are about to vote on the confirmation of Judge Clement Haynsworth to the Supreme Court actually turn him down, they will stand guilty of having abetted the most brazen lynching of a reputation that this century has seen.

Personally, I can't really believe that all of the Senators now listed in the anti-Haynsworth count will go through with the murder of a man's good name. What is Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, for example, doing in the lynching pose (where she happens to stand as of the moment of writing)? Why does Sen. Robert P. Griffin of Michigan keep insisting that the alleged parallel between the Haynsworth and Abe Fortas cases obliges him to vote against supporting Nixon's nominee? These are honorable Republicans; they should take an honorable second look at their reasoning processes.

Clark Mollenhoff, the White House Deputy Counselor in charge of combatting smears, has already shown in careful detail that Judge Haynsworth's stock dealings involved just about as much "conflict of interest" with his judicial rulings as would be attributable to a pro-Coca Cola opinion by a jurist who had once taken a free drink of Coca Cola at a company party in Atlanta. I don't want to go into this business again, for I have already written a column about it. But since writing that particular column something else has come up. The Judge has been accused of dirty work in connection with the gift of a house to Furman University.

What goes on here? Every year people give property away to foundations, educational institutions and charities and take it as a quite legitimate tax deduction. The government wants it that way. All that Judge Haynsworth did was to make a gift of a house valued at $115,000 to his Alma Mater. He had put $115,000 into the house in 1960.

In taking the gift as a tax deduction he listed it for the same amount that he had paid for it. Nothing could have been fairer or more above-board. In fact, in an inflationary period of rising property values, the Judge might be accused of cheating himself. The appraised value of the house was $153,000.

Somehow I find Judge Haynsworth's letter to Clark Mollenhoff defending the propriety of his gift a bit nostalgic. It is redolent of a period in the life of this country when men could trust other men, even U.S. Senators with axes to grind, to be fundamentally decent.

"Dear Clark," so Judge Haynsworth wrote, "... I suppose I must confess that I made other gifts to Furman, where I went to school. I give them something every year. I make donations to my church every year and to the United Fund of Greenville. I give something every year to the Harvard Law School and to others. If you wish, you might inform the gentlemen of the press so that they can charge me with those things, too, without the need for further inquiry. With warm regards, Clement."

Time magazine let a large cut out of the bag when it noted, in a news account of the Haynsworth showdown, that "Griffin and Scott, who are from the large industrial states of Michigan and Pennsylvania... are unwilling to antagonize large blocs of blacks, Jews, liberals, and union members by backing a conservative Southerner for a seat held for 53 years by a succession of Jews."

Will Griffin and Senate Minority Leader Hugh Scott stand for the snide implication of such an accusation? What Time is saying is that Griffin and Scott can be bought by blacks, liberals, Jews, and union members just to get their votes. This is the ultimate in quiet insult. If they take it lying down, they aren't half the men I have supposed them to be.

If Griffin and Scott go through with the anti-Haynsworth campaign, one hopes they will in all honesty say that they are opposed to confirming Haynsworth because he is a Southerner who happens to be a moderate conservative.

Let them clear their own names and reputations by basing their votes on what they think of Judge Haynsworth's judicial philosophy. If they breathe one word about any alleged "conflict of interest," they will have signaled to the world one of three things: either they have failed to read Clark Mollenhoff's magisterial paper clearing Judge Haynsworth of the "conflict of interest" charges, or they are stupid or intellectually vengeful men.

Letters To The Press

LET US LIVE

My husband and I are two old people age 61 and 66 who have had some experience living around a paper mill. Even though we lived 80 miles from that paper mill, we still got that awful smell.

I retired from A.C. Spark Plug Company of Flint on total disability. I am an asthmatic and also have emphysema.

We moved from Flint to Lake Providence, La., thinking that the hot sunshine would help my condition. But, due to a stinking paper mill, I spent most of that five years in the hospital under the care of Dr. William Paris, M.D., of Lake Providence. This paper mill is located in West Monroe, La., and Louisiana is noted for good fishing and hunting. Now in the stream around that paper mill there isn't any fish or wild ducks, nothing but dirty water and that awful smell from the paper mill. I was ordered to leave Lake Providence, if I wanted to live. So, we came back to Michigan. Now here in Delta County, I have found I can live very comfortably.

Don't let Mead build a kraft mill here. Because if you do, those that live in Delta County, and we who live on the North Banks of Lake Michigan are dead! I am asthmatic and lots of others like me will suffer. We can't pull up and leave; we are buying our home. We pay our way the best we can with what money we've got. I am begging — don't let that kraft mill here — get out and fight this thing! We've got clean air now. Stop the paper mill and the railroad from messing everything up! Lake Michigan is sick now. Do you—the people of Escanaba—want to live with polluted air and water??? Wake up before it's too late!

Let us who are old live our last few years where the air is so good and clean that you and me can breathe. Let me ask you citizens of Escanaba and Delta County — Did you ever see an asthmatic trying to breathe, hear them gasping and wheezing, trying to get oxygen, finger nails and lips turning blue, begging for air, or laying in the hospital with a bottle of aminophyllin going in their veins so they can breathe? Let me tell you — it is a serious situation—I know! Don't let big industry drive us away and don't be too anxious you folks who are in favor of this kraft mill coming here. Just remember, that a respiratory disease can hit anybody at anytime and asthma cannot be cured, only relief can be given.

(Editor's Note: The following letter was written to Mrs. Betty Hamilton of the American Red Cross office in Escanaba praising services offered by the Red Cross to soldiers in Vietnam.)

RED CROSS, THANKS

Just thought I would write you a few lines thanking you for the items you gave my mother to send to me. The pens you sent were put to good use. I am writing this letter with one. The combs I passed out to a few of the guys. As for the wash cloths, boy did they smell fresh and clean, it was a mad rush for them, I was lucky to get one myself.

I don't think people realize just how wonderful the Red Cross is until they are helped by it. Back in the states the Red Cross helps in time of need and things like giving blood. Well, over here they also do a good job.

I have seen them work with the South Vietnamese people and the U.S. soldiers. Every once in a while a few of Red Cross girls show up at the Night Defense Postion. They do things like talk to you, make coffee or even bake a cake. It all helps build the morale up.

The bidding:
North 2♦ South 3♦ Pass
West 4♦ Pass

Opening lead—four of spades. To lose a trick you don't have to lose and get back two in exchange is certainly a profitable venture. This type of play doesn't come up often, but it can be highly effective when it does.

West led the four of spades, a marked singleton on the bidding. Prospects of making the slam were not good when East covered the ten with the queen and declarer took the ace. South had two spade losers and no sure way of salvaging them.

Declarer realized that his best chance was to ruff dummy's hearts and hope that the ace would fall in time to make the king a trick.

Accordingly, he crossed to dummy with a trump, ruffed a heart, led another trump and ruffed another heart, then played a club to the ten and ruffed still another heart. When the ace did not fall, South seemed destined to lose two spade tricks for down one.

But South was not yet finished—he saw there was still another chance. If West had the ace of hearts, the slam could still be made.

After cashing the A-K of clubs, he led the king of hearts from dummy. When East followed with the queen, South knew he would make the slam. Instead of ruffing the heart, he discarded a spade on it. As a result, he lost a heart trick he didn't have to lose, but the trick came back with interest.

West took the ace, but had no place to go. He had to lead a heart or a club, and in either case South would ruff in dummy and discard his last spade. South started with one plan—the hope that the heart ace would fall—but he shifted to another when the original plan failed.

It is a poor man that admits of no modification.

Wyoming Ice Cube Gets Heated Answers

Dear Readers: Remember the letter from Wyoming Ice Cube — the 18-year-old Casper cutie with the high date turnover? She had been called everything from a tease to a mental case. A pre-med student told her she'd probably have a nervous breakdown because of her pent up emotions. In desperation, the girl performed an analysis on her social life. Her findings were as follows: Invariably the fellow was mannerly and respectful on the first date. On the second date he made it clear he wasn't about to waste any more time. His question was to the point: "How about it?" On the third date if she wasn't willing to lie down and talk things over he would feed her telephone number to the nearest goat.

Cube asked me, "Is virginity outmoded? Do men REALLY want everything they ask for, or are they merely testing?" I told her I'd ask the fellows. And I did. Here is a sampling of the replies:

Yale Class of '42: This will probably come as a disappointment to most college students, but you didn't invent sex, my little chickadee. There was a good bit of it in "the olden days." I got my share, probably more. But the girl I married was the one who said, "Nothing doing until we get married." We had some knock-down, drag-out arguments but I was secretly happy that she won them all. We celebrate our 25th next month.

University of Nebraska: I wish Ice Cube could listen to the conversations in the men's dorm. It would settle the question once and for all. The nicknames — "Mattress Mary," "Horizontal Helen," and "Round — heeled Ruthie" are just a few. Of course it's rotten, but most guys figure if a girl doesn't have any respect for herself, she doesn't deserve any from them.

Colorado U: If I score on the second or third date, I put C.P. next to the babe's phone number. It stands for "Community Property." I've never dated a C.P. more than three times. They are usually super-dumb and crashing bums.

Political Reform On State Demos' Agenda

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's former Democratic state chairman says he hopes political reform ideas — including provisions for a presidential primary and the 18-year-old voter will be major items before the 1970 Legislature.

Senate Minority Leader Sander Levin, D-Berkley, said Monday he already has asked the Legislative Service Bureau to draft proposals for introduction in January or February.

The measures would be introduced after a special Democratic State Convention Jan. 17-18 in Detroit, called to discuss a massive political reform document put together by a commission of Democrats.

The recommendations — which also include a call for the one-man, one-vote principle and proportionate representation within political parties — were revealed at a Lansing news conference.

Levin, assistant chairman of the commission, and Dean William Haber of the University of Michigan, who headed the 102-member group, said their proposals were aimed at modernizing the party system and "getting everyone into it."

"The political process has remained largely unchanged in a society which has been in the midst of fast changes," Haber said. "Millions of our citizens are not involved in the political process."

"If our Democracy is to be a thriving healthy institution, we must make certain that all the citizens find the political process an appropriate avenue for necessary changes."

Levin noted that both government and political parties have grown in size "in an effort to solve pressing problems."

"One result of this," he said, "is that many individual citizens do not believe that government and the parties have time to listen to the problems."

"In this report, we believe we have found ways to bring people closer to their parties and their government and to bring their parties and their government closer to them."

Among ways the commission recommends that to be done were:

—Allowing a $15 income tax credit for each individual for political contributions.

—Having the state publish a voter information pamphlet at each election and reserving free radio and television time for candidates for major state and federal office.

—Providing for uniform state-wide voter registration.

—Establishing a judicial body within the party to hear appeals of members who feel that they have been unfairly treated by some formal party structure.

Levin and Haber noted that Republican support would be needed to move any political reform legislation through the House and Senate.

"There already have been in formal discussions with Republicans," Levin said. "And these will continue. We hope this will be a bipartisan public effort. Democrats have no monopoly on political changes."

"Obviously we would have to appeal to the leadership in the Republican Party," Haber said, adding that, although he has been involved in politics for more than 30 years, "this is the first time I've been involved in a cold look at how we go about electing people to public office."

Sunday Liquor Law Attacked

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit couple has attacked the constitutionality of a Michigan law which allows Sunday sale of liquor only if the bar gets at least 51 per cent of its income from sale of food.

The law gives counties the option of allowing hard liquor sales if the food sales requirement is met.

"Food is no more a valid criterion than carpeting," charged Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Kunkel in their suit filed in Wayne County Circuit Court. They own the Ten-Eight-Thirty bar in Detroit where the only food sold is a selection of sandwiches prepared on a small grill.

The Kunkels are permitted to sell beer and wine on Sundays, but not liquor. They are now appealing a $100 fine for selling liquor illegally on a Sunday last June.

Trial As Adult

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Kent County Prosecutor James K. Miller says he will ask juvenile court for permission to try a 15-year-old boy as an adult on a murder charge after his twin sister was shot and killed in Algoma Township Nov. 12.

The boy was arrested shortly after Diane L. Fischer's body was found in the dining room of her home. She had been shot three times. The boy is being held in the Kent County Juvenile Court Center.

Officers Angry

HIGHLAND PARK (AP) — A spokesman for the Highland Park Police Officers Association said Monday the union is highly displeased with what he called the city's decision to renege on a contract proposal.

The spokesman did not say what the contract provision was.

Sen. Hart Hosts Demonstrators

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan's Democratic Senator Philip A. Hart opened his Washington home to scores of young antiwar protesters in the capital over the weekend.

With little notice, Sen. Hart found himself playing host to some 60 persons, mostly from the University of Michigan or New College in Sarasota, Fla., where his 22-year-old daughter, Ann, has studied.

"The trouble is," Ann said, "they started arriving Tuesday and we didn't expect them until Thursday."

Sleeping bags, bed rolls and towels were spread all about the Hart home, and a tent was pitched in the back yard of their home on the fashionable Calvert Avenue near the Shoreham Hotel.

The senator's wife, Jane, is free on bail after being arrested for disturbing the peace with a group of clergymen at the Pentagon Thursday.

"Where can you fall into the hands of the law in better shape than at Mass at the Pentagon," says Sen. Hart with a shrug.

Buck Stolen

CADILLAC (AP) — Ralph Knouse shot a nine-point buck over the weekend and hung the 200-pounder in front of his Cadillac home to drain. Sunday morning he reported the carcass had been stolen.

Stamp Honoring Homing Pigeon Being Proposed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Post Office Department has been asked to issue a commemorative stamp honoring the homing pigeon, a bird Otto Meyer of Pittsburgh credits with saving thousands of lives during wartime.

"The homing pigeon is one of the most reliable means of communication ever devised, and that includes all the sophisticated means we have today," said Meyer, a member of the International Federation of American Homing Pigeon Fanciers. Meyer was the commander of 3,000 pigeons and 54,000 pigeons in the Army Pigeon Service as a major during world War II.

"During combat, 99 per cent of all messages sent by pigeon were received," Meyer said. "It's a delivery record that's never been exceeded. It's not the most expeditious means, but it's the most secure. There's no known method of interception and no effective countermeasure."

Clifford Jackson of Gladstone brought down a nine-point buck while hunting near the Haymeadow Creek north of Rapid River Sunday afternoon. The kill was the biggest of his hunting career.

Harvey DePas of Milwaukee, Wis., hunting out of the High Chaparral Camp in Gourley Township, Menominee County, shot a fine eight-point buck Sunday afternoon. The deer weighed 135 pounds.

Terry McCormick of Davison shot a spikehorn early Saturday morning.

Leonard Belongia of Oakley, Mich., shot a lady deer opening day.

Escapee Nabbed

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — Battle Creek police have arrested one of three men who escaped from the Calhoun County Jail in Marshall Sunday. Arrested Monday was Florian Ungurian, 44, of Battle Creek.

License Buyer Loses No. 1 Bid

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Leo K. Stafford, who claims he has bought the first license plate in Kalamazoo for 15 years, lost the race Monday. Stafford, 79, said he arrived at the license bureau at 5 p.m. Sunday and had no competition.

Then early Monday morning, he returned to his car to get out of the rain. Apparently he dozed off and when he awoke there were two men in front of him.

With his heart set on license No. FRC000, Stafford couldn't settle for less and left with nothing. He indicated he may try to get another all-zero number with a different letter com-

Elimination Of Ties With ROTC Asked

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The faculty representative body at the University of Michigan Monday called for the elimination most academic and all financial ties with the Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

In a 52-2 vote, the Senate Assembly asked the university administration to renegotiate its present ROTC contract with the U.S. Department of Defense.

The university's board of regents, which has final say in the matter, will consider the faculty recommendations in December or January.

The faculty report offers four recommendations to the regents and urges that all of the university's ROTC contracts be dropped. ROTC and Defense Department officials reject the demands.

The four recommendations are: —That the Defense Department be required to pay full costs of the ROTC program.

—That a committee of students, faculty and administrators be set up to supervise the military studies curriculum and evaluate and approve teaching personnel.

—That the military instructors not be given academic titles.

—That ROTC be considered as programs rather than academic departments.

ROTC now costs the university over $70,000 annually. Another $980,000 is provided by the Department of Defense.

ROTC and Defense Department officials have already indicated the faculty report's recommendations are unacceptable and have hinted similar demand could bring an ROTC pullout from the campus.

Officials have also said extra-curricular status would be unacceptable.

Regent approval of the recommendations is uncertain. In the past the eight-man board has given weight to faculty advisories.

The U-M was the site earlier this fall of a radical student takeover of the ROTC building which brought a police contingent onto campus.

During the summer, the staff car of the Army ROTC commandant was bombed on the campus. No injuries resulted and no charges were brought.

Cab Fare Hike Vetoed By Mayor

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's Mayor Jerome Cavanagh Monday vetoed the hike in taxicab fares as passed by the Common Council.

He lashed councilmen for "cracker barrel musings" and said their 9-0 vote in favor of the increase "defies comprehension." Cavanagh pointed out that the council did not inspect the financial books of the six cab companies which requested the hike.

Under the vetoed measure, cab riders would pay 90 cents for a one-mile ride and $1.90 for a three-mile ride up from 80 cents and $1.60.

Acquitted

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. (AP) — A 21-year-old Marine private from Detroit has been acquitted of rioting charges brought for his part in a July 20 racial melee at Camp Lejeune.

A special court martial found Pvt. Robert G. Brown innocent in a trial ending Saturday. Brown has resumed his duties with the 6th Marine Regiment on the base, a Marine Corps spokesman said.

Goal Passed

PORT HURON (AP) — The St. Clair County Community Chest reports its most successful fund raising campaign in several years. Gifts and pledges this year total $545,483, according to campaign chairman Edwin Jacobson. This amount is $20,000 more than the goal set. Additional contributions are expected from a "commuter campaign" aimed at some 7,000 workers who live in the county but work outside.

"THIS IS THE ZODIAC SPEAKING," begins the letter sent to the San Francisco Chronicle, and acknowledging it was this cryptogram from the mysterious killer who now claims seven murders. In previous notes he bragged of five. "I get awfully lonely when I am ignored," he wrote.

Chicago Prices

POTATOES

CHICAGO (AP) — (USDA) — Potatoes arrivals Monday 161; on track 161; total U.S. shipments for Friday 383; Saturday 127; Sunday 38; supplies moderate; demand for russets moderate, market steady; demand for round reds slow, market slightly weaker; carlot track sales: Idaho russet Burbanks 5.10; Minnesota North Dakota Red River Valley round reds 3.30 - 3.40.

BUTTER AND EGGS

CHICAGO (AP) — (USDA) — Butter Friday wholesale selling prices unchanged to 1/4 higher; 88 score AA 68 1/2-1/4; 92 A 67 1/4-68; 65 1/4-66. Eggs: prices paid delivered to Chicago unchanged to 1/4 higher; 80 per cent or better grade A whites 61-63; medium white extras 58-59 1/4; standards 52-53 1/4.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

Governor Eying Early Sessions On Reform Bill

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken says he hopes bipartisan bargaining sessions on education reform will begin "shortly."

Milliken was busy over the weekend and Monday, trying to win a consensus from Republican and Democratic leaders in the House and Senate on when, where and how to conduct the negotiations.

Plans were not set as of late Monday afternoon, but Milliken said he anticipated the sessions would begin before week's end. "The only thing that makes sense is that we have the four entities represented and go through the package," said House Speaker William Ryan, D-Detroit.

"I would hope we'd begin this week," Ryan added. "We have to do an awful lot of work in two weeks" before lawmakers return from a deer-hunting recess that began last Friday. The Legislature is to reconvene Dec. 2.

Welfare Club's Basket Program In Full Swing

Plans for the Child's Welfare Club Christmas basket project are well along and the club has requested that anyone wishing to make a cash donation contact Mrs. H. J. Skojquist or Mrs. Otto Hult.

City firemen are assisting the club by repairing used toys to be included in the baskets. They would like to see more bicycles, tricycles, wagons and metal trucks brought to the fire hall for repairs.

Last year, approximately 50 baskets containing a complete Christmas dinner, candy, fruit, nuts, toys and other gifts were distributed among needy families in the Gladstone area. Many organizations as well as service clubs also contribute to the baskets.

MEETING MORATORIUM

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A two-year moratorium on national church meetings is being urged by the United Methodist Church's program council, which notes that the denomination has held a total of 19 national conferences or consultations since 1968. The group urged a complete halt to such affairs from May 1, 1970, until Dec. 31, 1972, to re-evaluate the need for so many of them.

Condemned Man Given Luxuries By 'Kind' Judge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The judge's order was unprecedented here—giving a Death Row prisoner an expense account, three assistants, an extra cell for storage and unlimited use of jail phones.

But that's what Superior Court Judge John F. McCarthy ordered for Doyal A. Terry, an inmate of San Quentin's Death Row for nine years, now facing his fifth penalty trial.

Doyle, 40, wants to defend himself. The judge agreed recently he could and ordered the $500 expense account for legal supplies two numbers who will also take Terry's clothes to the cleaners, a licensed private investigator to help prepare the case, a call to store documents and transcripts, and the phone calls.

The usual privileges granted prisoners defending themselves aren't adequate in this case, the judge said.

Los Angeles County will pay the cost. Terry was convicted in 1960 of murdering a Long Beach policeman. He was sentenced to death three times, but each sentence was reversed by the California Supreme Court. The fourth penalty trial in 1964 ended with the jury deadlocked.

Ribicoff Says:

Black Marketeer
Haul $1 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff says black marketeers have made more than $1 billion by illegal manipulation of U.S. and South Vietnamese currencies.

Syndicate Blamed

The situation involves a criminal syndicate, is international in scope and has hurt seriously the American attempt to shore up the South Vietnamese economy, the Connecticut Democrat said.

prior to his investigations subcommittee opening public hearings today into the illegal racket.

Ribicoff said the illegal money market involves federal employees, members of the U.S. armed forces, government-affiliated contractors, American businessmen, South Vietnamese citizens and nationals of other countries.

Illegal Dealings

He said witnesses will give evidence on specific illegal money dealings through American and Hong Kong banks totaling about $360 million over the last five years.

The hearings are the second phase of an extensive on-the-scene probe by staff investigators over the last year.

The first phase dealt mainly with a small group of senior noncommissioned officers accused of raking hundreds of thousands of dollars from NCO clubs in Germany, the United States and South Vietnam.

Large Profits Possible

Large profits are possible in illegal money operations in Vietnam, subcommittee aides said, because of the substantial difference in legal and illegal exchange rates.

The official exchange rate is 118 South Vietnamese piasters to the dollar.

The black market rate is usually 170 piasters to the dollar and has reached 200, investigators reported.

Ribicoff said the currency manipulation racket has done serious damage to the South Vietnamese economy, has made more difficult the fight against inflation and has reduced the effect of the American aid program.

Woman Shot

FLINT (AP) — A 28-year-old Flint woman, Linda Nowack, told police a rejected suitor shot her three times at the Northside Flint Shopping Center Monday.

A 32-year-old man whose name has not been released was arrested immediately after the shooting. He was to be arraigned today for assault with intent to commit murder. Miss Nowack is reported in fair condition.

In its enthusiastic pursuit of grasses, bark, roots, and tender vegetables, the wombat casually wrecks fences that stand between it and food. Then rabbits, the agricultural scourge of Australia, easily pass through the damaged fences to attack crops.

A Letter To Officers And Members Of The Upper Peninsula
Michigan Building
& Construction
Trades Council:

Your business is my business. I would like to say this as a private citizen, and I have nothing to do with Save Our Air Committee.

If you had a million dollars, and you were sick, what good would it do you?

If we create a few extra jobs, and we keep thousands of people out of this area, retirees, tourist, relations, friends, plus making it miserable for thousands living in this area. I ask you what good is it?

I am a working man like you are. My hours average 10 to 12 daily. This is more than the average man works. I've worked on the railroad for the past 18 years. I run a store. I do manual labor like installing stoves, heaters, fireplaces, and my wife takes in sewing after 52 years. So I don't think any of you can say I'm against labor.

I want industries as well as you do, but with the extra employees that will benefit from this you are chasing triple this number away plus making it miserable for thousands of others.

Let me ask you, is it worth it?

A good question? You people living in the surrounding areas of Escanaba, you feel pretty free and don't think it will affect you. Well you had better start thinking.

Many of you want industry to keep your children in this area, if it has foul air or not. I want to get my son back to live in clean air and fresh water.

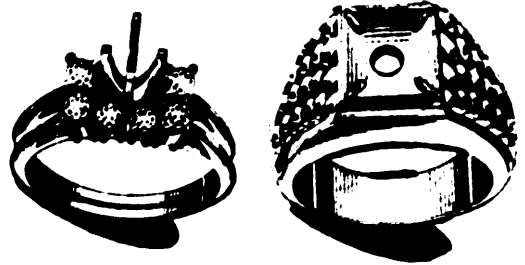

I hope the good Lord helps me in this effort. I have the feeling I'm doing the best thing for myself and the people in this area.

Highlights Of Apollo Flight

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Here are highlights of the fifth and sixth days on Apollo 12's flight to the moon, all times Eastern Standard:

Tuesday, Nov. 18

6:32 a.m.—After spending two hours inside Intrepid landing craft, setting up equipment and testing communications systems, Apollo 12 astronauts Charles Conrad Jr. and Alan L. Bean rejoin Richard F. Gordon Jr. in Yankee Clipper command ship. All three begin one-hour eat period, followed by 8½-hour rest.

4:22 p.m.—Astronauts awake and begin 1½-hour eat period.

5:52 p.m.—Gordon snaps pictures of the shallow crater Fra Mauro, likely landing target for Apollo 13 next March.

7:01 p.m.—Conrad and Bean re-enter landing craft to start final preparations for landing.

11:12 p.m.—Forty-minute telecast showing Conrad and Bean, in Intrepid, uncouple from Yankee Clipper, as seen out command ship window.

11:16 p.m.—Lander craft and command ship undock.

11:46 p.m.—Gordon triggers command ship's maneuvering rockets to pull away from Intrepid.

Wednesday, Nov. 19

12:45 a.m.—Intrepid's main braking rocket triggered 28 seconds to begin drop toward moon's Ocean of Storms.

1:42 a.m.—Landing craft's braking rocket fired for critical 11-minute burn to settle astronauts to surface.

1:53 a.m.—Landing on surface.

4 a.m.—Final preparations begin for moon walk.

5:42 a.m.—Intrepid cockpit depressurized.

6:02 a.m.—Conrad exits out hatch, activates TV camera to show him descending ladder to surface, picks up rock sample.

6:32 a.m.—Bean exits and descends ladder to surface. He and Conrad spend next three hours taking pictures, erecting American flag, setting up scientific experiments and collecting rocks.

9:18 a.m.—Conrad and Bean re-enter Intrepid and close hatch, ending first moon walk.

10:20 a.m.—Crew begins one-hour eat period, then loads new oxygen supply in life-supporting backpacks in preparation for second moon walk to begin at 12:38 a.m. Thursday.

12:14 p.m.—Start of nine-hour rest period during which Conrad and Bean sleep on hammocks inside Intrepid.

9:17 p.m.—Conrad and Bean eat period, then prepare for second moon walk.

12:32 a.m. Thursday—Intrepid hatch opened and Conrad exits to begin second moon walk. During next three hours, 15 minutes, Conrad and Bean gather rocks, after first documenting photographically each one's position on the surface, walk to Surveyor 3 spaceship and snap pieces off it to return to earth.

Evaluation Of Lake Shipping
U.S. Project

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The freighter US Tourist made its final Milwaukee appearance Monday in a test by the government to determine the feasibility of increased military cargo shipments through Great Lakes ports.

The Tourist is wrapping up a series of six round trips between Milwaukee and Europe. The Defense Department is evaluating the effectiveness of the trips by Tourist and a sister ship, the US Adventurer, both of the government's Military Sea Transport Service.

The study is to determine whether the Pentagon can reduce shipping costs by handling Midwest cargo through Great Lakes ports rather than send it by rail to Atlantic ports.

Milwaukee, Kenosha and Toledo, Ohio, were selected as ports.

The Tourist took on aluminum items and refrigerators in Milwaukee, and was to pick up a cargo of trucks and cars in Kenosha.

Then the Tourist and Adventurer will have hauled about 15,000 tons of goods from Milwaukee, 20,000 tons from Toledo and 25,000 tons from Kenosha.

The European ports involved in the series are Antwerp, Rotterdam and Bremerhaven. Six round trips to Europe in a single season is a record for Milwaukee's port.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., has made several requests to the Pentagon to consider what he says would be cost-saving use of Great Lakes ports.

A reversible outer toe and tiny spikes on the pads of the sprey's feet—which help it to grip the fish this way, one foot before the other—are among the characteristics that put the bird in a group by itself.

USMC PFC. Michael J. Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hanson of Bark River, has been assigned to Camp Pendleton after being home on a 20-day leave. Pfc. Hanson is a 1969 graduate of Bark River-Harris High School. He enlisted in the Marines in July, 1969.

New Mayor

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—William Lynch Monday was elected Traverse City's new mayor. Lynch, who had been mayor pro-tem, will fill the unexpired term left by Nicholas Rajkovich, who died last week at 59. Lynch was elected unanimously by city commissioners.

Suspect Held

SAGINAW (AP)—An 18-year-old youth today was held for questioning in the fatal shooting of a 14-year-old Saginaw school girl while she ate lunch in a restaurant crowded with fellow students.

Witnesses told police a youth who was apparently a stranger to Kathy Sanger walked up to the table where she was eating Monday and gunned her down from point-blank range.

Police said the youth's parents turned him over to police Monday night. Officers said they knew of no motive for the slaying.

Band Mothers Plan Dessert Card Party

Holy Name Band Mothers met Sunday evening in the faculty room of Holy Name High School.

Final plans were made for the annual dessert card party to be held Dec. 4 in the multipurpose room of the school. The public is invited and tickets will be available at door.

Cards of the player's choice will be played with a prize for each table and several guest prizes will also be awarded. Home baked goods, candy, fancy work and Christmas items will be available at the bazaar table.

Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase music, instruments and uniforms for the Holy Name High School Band. Mrs. Henry King is general chairman with Mrs. Rupert Prinski in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. Michael LaPine, bazaar items.

Annual Alumni Basketball Game Is Set Dec. 26

Members of the Holy Name High School Scholarship Foundation recently met at the school to discuss plans for the 12th annual alumni basketball game to be held Dec. 26. Tom McDonough and Casimir Milkiewicz are again the chairmen for the event.

Half-time entertainment is still in a formative stage, but it was announced that a snowmobile will be awarded at this time.

The Scholarship Foundation was re-organized in January of 1968 with the belief that one who is fortunate enough to be educated in this country has a moral obligation to use his education for the benefit of his fellow citizens. The Foundation is so dedicated to send more worthy Holy Name graduates to higher education who in turn will use their education not only for themselves but for the betterment of Escanaba and Delta County.

Members of the Foundation are: Mrs. Donald LeMire, president; Dick Wiles, vice president; Charles Wanic, president of the Board of Education; Arnold Taylor, vice president of the Parents' Club; Jack Manning, Mrs. Dennis McGinn, Tom McDonough, Bob Dufour, Casimir Milkiewicz, Donald Crawford. Mrs. John Lasnoski is secretary-treasurer. The Rev. Vincent Ouellette, superintendent of Holy Name, Brother Mark and Sister Christine, co-principals of the High School are ex-officio members.

Newspaper Want Ads are a big sell! One billion, twenty-one million was spent on classified ads last year... more than for all magazine advertising combined and more than any other form of advertising.

MR. AND MRS. GIRARD MURRAY announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine Mary, to Grant G. Baker, son of Mrs. Ola Baker, 46 S. Howell St., Hillsdale, Mich. The bride-elect graduated from Powers-Spalding High School in 1967 and is now a junior majoring in Business Education at Northern Michigan University, Marquette. Her fiancé is a 1968 graduate of Northern Mich. University and majored in Business Administration and is presently serving with the U. S. Army in Headquarters Company, Saigon, Vietnam. A summer wedding is being planned. (Lee's Studio)

Linda Marie Roberts, Lorne J. Davey Wed

Linda Marie Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd T. Roberts, Rte. 1, Rapid River, exchanged wedding vows with Lorne Joseph Davey, USN, during a two o'clock ceremony on Saturday, Nov. 1, at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Long Beach, Calif.

White Brocade

For her marriage to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Davey, of Boston, Mass., the bride chose a street length white brocade dress featuring a fitted bodice and matching a-line coat and carried a boutique of red and white carnations.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Jean Lamoges who wore an autumn gold dress with beige accessories. Best man was Francis Limoges, USN.

The new Mrs. Lorne Davey is a 1967 graduate of Menzies High School and is employed as a secretary for the City of Long Beach.

U. S. Navy

The bridegroom is currently serving with the United States

First Methodist Circles Meet This Week

The Circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church meeting dates have been announced.

Ruth Circle meets at the Farway Dinette Thursday, Nov. 20 at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Ed Miller and Mrs. Ray Shaw, hostesses. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Christine Christian with Mrs. Silas McMartin, program chairman.

Elizabeth Circle meets Thursday at 2 p.m. at the church with Mrs. John Birkenmeier, hostess. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Donald Ness with Mrs. Alvin Ness in charge of the program.

Future activities include Centennial committee meeting Monday, Nov. 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the church with Dr. William Buel, chairman; WSCS pot-luck luncheon, Thursday, Dec. 4, at 1 p.m.

Rock 4-Hers Plan Holiday Meet, Party

Rock 4-H Club members met at the Lions Clubhouse Wednesday, Nov. 13 for their monthly business meeting. New officers were installed during the candlelight ceremony, with the outgoing officers as installing officers.

Members voted to change the date of the December meeting to Thursday, Dec. 18 and members are to invite a friend for the Christmas party following the meeting. The telethon was also discussed.

Reports on knitting and textile painting were heard and both project groups are meeting every week. Home Design project will begin soon.

Several members volunteered to clean out the flower beds for winter. The club still has a few satin pillow cases available.

Lunch was served after the meeting by Cheryl Wilson and Brenda Norden. Pam Lieburn is a new member.

Rock 4-H leaders met with Don Brown, 4-H youth agent at the Rock School, Tuesday evening to discuss the 4-H program.

Miss McInerney, John R. Grow Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. McInerney, 1616 16th Ave. S. announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosemary Patricia, to John Randolph Grow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph C. Grow, 112 Hall Drive, Wadsworth, Ohio.

The bride-elect is a 1965 graduate of Holy Name High School and a 1969 graduate of Marquette University, where she received her B. S. degree in medical technology. She is presently employed as a medical technologist at Deaconess Hospital, Milwaukee.

Her fiancé is a 1968 graduate of Marquette University where he received a B. A. degree in English and is presently a senior at the Marquette University School of Medicine. He is affiliated with Sigma Tau Delta, honorary fraternity and Alpha Kappa Kappa, national professional medical fraternity.

The wedding will take place June 10, 1970 at St. Patrick's Church in Escanaba.

Buckeyes Keep Hold On First

By The Associated Press
Brutish Ohio State and Texas bull-strong Longhorns remained one-two today in the Associated Press college football poll, but most of the rest of the nation's Top Twenty scattered like beserk dice in the season's biggest shake-up.

Cubs Acquire Outfield Help

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs, whose total collapse last season was partially attributed to a lack of outfield strength Monday acquired veteran outfielder Johnny Callison from the Philadelphia Phillies.

The price was high as the Cubs gave up starting pitcher Dick Selma and teen-age outfielder Oscar Gamble, a bright 19-year-old prospect.

Callison, 30, batted .265 in 134 games for Philadelphia including 16 home runs and 64 runs batted in. A left-handed slugger, Callison twice made the National League All-Star team and has 169 career home runs.

Unless the Cubs make another deal or come up with a minor league prospect, their outfield next season probably will be made up of Williams, Callison and Jim Hickman, who in the final two months of the 1969 season was the Cubs' most consistent slugger.

Selma, 28, failed to pan out and finished with a 12-10 record after being acquired from San Diego in April for pitchers Joe Niekro and Gary Ross. Selma failed to contribute to the cause as the Cubs saw a 9½ game lead melt away to the hot running New York Mets who won the Eastern Division of the National League and went on to capture the World Series from Baltimore.

Gamble, a hard throwing speedster, was considered one of the Cubs' top minor league prospects. He played most of the season with San Antonio where he batted .306 with 7 home runs and 32 runs batted in.

their Big Ten showdown Saturday, corralled 31 first-place votes and 736 points over all from a national panel of sports-writers and sportscasters.

Texas, which stampeded Texas Christian, 69-7, collected seven first-place ballots and 688 points.

Tennessee tumbled from third to ninth after dropping a 38-0 stunner to Mississippi, and a pack of teams moved up a notch in the jumbled Top Ten after weekend successes.

Arkansas went from fourth to third, collecting 586 points after slugging Southern Methodist 22-15; Penn State jumped from fifth to fourth with 544 points after crushing Maryland 48-0, and Southern Cal stepped up a notch to fifth with 416 points after tripping Washington 16-7.

UCLA, a 13-10 winner over Oregon, went from seventh to sixth; Missouri climbed from eighth to seventh after beating Iowa State 40-13; Notre Dame went from ninth to eighth after slugging Georgia Tech 38-20, and LSU stepped into the Top Ten at 10th after its 61-6 pasting of Mississippi State.

Purdue, knocked out of the Rose Bowl picture by Ohio State, also was drummed out of the Top Ten. The Boilermakers slipped from 10th to 17th.

Auburn stayed in the 11th spot after beating Georgia 16-3; Michigan moved from 14th to 12th after walloping Iowa 51-6; Mississippi jumped from 18th to 13th; Stanford grounded Air Force 47-34 but still dropped from 13th to 14th, and Florida stayed No. 15 after clouting Kentucky 31-6.

Rounding out the Top Twenty were No. 16 Nebraska; No. 17 Purdue; No. 18 West Virginia; No. 19 Moutson and No. 20 Toledo.

DeTour's Ledy Honored On State Class D Team

By The Associated Press
Their height ranges from 5-foot-6 to 6-foot-3, and their weight from 180 pounds to 243, but members of the 1969 Associated Press Class D All-State high school football team share one trait—talent.

Chosen were: ends Gary DeVore of Owen-Gageand Ben Alexander of Mendon; interior men Bill Tuberville of Britton-Macon, Walt Sobocinski of Memphis, Dan Walker of Flint Holy Redeemer, Ray Niedzwiecki of Fosen, and Brian Sauve of Watford Our Lady; quarterback Martin Ledy of DeTour; and running backs Dean Kauffman of Au Gres, Jim Dupuis of Wyandott, and Dave Wilcox of Dryden.

DeVore, a 6-1, 179-pounder, caught 12 passes and scored five touchdowns. But he is noted for his all-around ability. He is an excellent blocker and has cleared the path for eight TDs through his position. On defense, he averaged nine solo tackles a game.

Mendon, 6-1-1, finished sixth in this season's AP poll and much of the credit belongs to Alexander. The 6-3, 185-pounder caught 23 passes for 343 yards and had a 14.8-yard average per reception. As a linebacker on defense he made 12 tackles a game and intercepted six passes.

Tuberville was a four-year starter for Britton-Macon, and was named to the All-River Raisin conference team three times as a tackle, linebacker and guard.

Sobocinski, a "B" student and class treasurer, was constantly double-teamed by opponent blockers but a touchdown was never scored over his hole in the line. Memphis scored 11 TDs and eight were through his offensive tackle spot.

Flint Holy Redeemer, 8-1, finished second in the final poll with considerable credit belonging to Walker. The 6-3, 225-pounder is a standout linebacker and on offense plays full-back. He scored 10 TDs and ran for 651 yards.

Richard Smith, former president of the North Star high school league, says Niedzwiecki has both the strength, tenacity and intelligence to direct a very effective defensive unit. The 5-9, 183-pounder accounted for more than 60 unassisted tackles from his middle linebacker position.

City Basketball Ready To Begin

The City League basketball program, sponsored by the Recreation Department in cooperation with the Escanaba Area Public Schools, will begin preparations for the 1969-70 season with a meeting at the Catherine Bonifas Civic Center Wednesday at 7 p.m.

The league will operate with eight teams and official league play is scheduled to begin on Monday, Dec. 1. The remainder of this week and all of next week will be devoted to practice sessions.

Six games will be played each week during the winter months with the traditional break during the Christmas holidays. Michigan high school rules will be followed and the five-foul rule will be in effect for league and tournament play. Games will be played in the Junior High gym on Monday and Wednesday nights.

Last year's teams expected to be back in action include Robinson's Furniture, Tom's Signs, Herbert Offset, Merchants, Stone House, Pabst, and at least one team from Bay de Noc College.

He made the league's All-Star team for the past three seasons. Sauve is one of the smallest members of this year's All-State team at 5-8, 160 pounds. He was chosen the outstanding lineman in the Northwest Catholic League in the Detroit area. Last year Ledy was the AP's second team "D" All-Stater. But this year the 5-11, 180-pound senior is No. 1. He completed 125 of 223 passes for 1,944 yards and 21 touchdowns. His three-year statistics are fantastic: 329 completions in 591 attempts for 5,203 yards and 60 TDs. DeTour has scored 701 points in the three years Ledy has been quarterback. He calls 100 per cent of the plays.

Kauffman's statistics are also amazing. He scored 15 TDs this season, with 10 coming on runs of from 38 to 86 yards. He averaged 7.6 yards a carry and also caught touchdown passes of 30, 33, 55 and 48 yards.

Dupuis is only 5-6, 170 pounds but he sprinted his way to 1,065 yards rushing this year in 195 carries for a 5.4 average and six touchdowns. On defense as a safety he made 36 tackles and intercepted two passes. In his three-years at Ypsi St. John he has rushed for 2,615 yards and scored 28 TDs and four conversions for 172 points.

As a linebacker and defensive halfback Wilcox this year intercepted seven passes and averaged 14 solo tackles a game. On offense he scored 72 points with 10 touchdowns and six extra points. He is a six-foot, 185-pounder.

Notre Dame Accepts Bid To Cotton Bowl

By The Associated Press
Notre Dame is noted for its football traditions—the Four Horsemen, the fabled Knute Rockne, "win one for the Gipper"—but Irish Coach Ara Parseghian is turning himself inside out with joy over the school's latest bit of tradition-shattering.

"I've waited 20 years to go to a bowl game so this is quite a day for me," he chirped after the college snapped a 44-year ban on post-season games and agreed Monday to play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas Jan. 1.

"I think a precedent now has been set and if we have good ranking and receive bids we can go to a bowl game every year," he added.

Notre Dame, ranked No. 4 in The Associated Press' latest poll, will play the Southwest Conference champion, either Texas or Arkansas, both 9-0.

No. 2 Texas and No. 3 Arkansas square off at Fayetteville, Ark., for the title Dec. 6. The loser will play No. 13 Mississippi, which stunned previously unbeaten Tennessee 38-0 last Saturday, in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans.

Most of the major bowl matchups were quickly settled Monday shortly after the passing of the 12 noon EST deadline imposed by the NCAA.

No. 4 Penn State, 8-0, was paired against No. 7 Missouri, 8-1 and co-leader of the Big Eight, in the Orange Bowl at Miami. And No. 9 Tennessee agreed to play No. 15 Florida, 7-1, in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 27.

The Rose Bowl, the granddaddy of them all, won't be firm until this weekend.

No. 5 Southern California, 8-0, meets No. 6 UCLA, 8-0-1 Saturday for the Pacific-8 championship and the host spot in the Rose Bowl.

Top-ranked Ohio State, which already has clinched a share of the Big Ten championship, is barred from a repeat visit to Pasadena because of the league's no-repeat rule. No. 12 Michigan, 7-2, plays the Buckeyes Saturday and a victory would assure the Wolverines the trip.

Even a creditable performance against the Buckeyes would probably send Michigan to the bowl because the league's other top candidate, No. 17 Purdue, was walloped by the Bucks 42-14 last weekend.

Auburn, Georgia and Alabama—all from the talent-rich Southeastern Conference—and Nebraska, the other co-leader in the Big Eight, gobbled up lesser bowl bids.

No. 11 Auburn, 7-2, will play Houston, 6-2, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston Dec. 31. Alabama, 6-3, will be the host team in the Liberty Bowl at Memphis Dec. 13 against the winner of Saturday's Kansas State-Colorado game. And No. 17 Nebraska, 7-2, takes on Georgia, 5-3-1, in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., Dec. 20.

South Carolina, 6-3, the Atlantic Coast Conference champion, will play in the Peach Bowl at Atlanta Dec. 30. No. 10 Louisiana State, shutout by the glamour bowls despite a gaudy 9-1 record, has been mentioned as a possible foe.

But Coach Charlie McClendon of the left out Tigers said: "Right now our boys are so mad and despondent I don't think they would even accept a bid to the Rose Bowl."

Notre Dame is making its first post-season appearance since the famed Four Horsemen & Co. defeated Stanford 27-10 in the 1925 Rose Bowl.

Money was the prime reason for lifting the ban. The Irish will probably get around $350,000 from the game, and school officials said it will be used to finance minority student programs and scholarships.

Parseghian also offered another reason. "When you lose a game early in the season as we did against Purdue, we have no chance to redeem ourselves because we are not in a conference where we'd be fighting for a championship. A bowl victory would help erase an early loss," he said.

Penn State, the pride of the East, is making its second straight visit to the Orange Bowl. The Nittany Lions escaped with a 15-14 victory over Kansas last New Year's Night in the famous 12th man on the field incident.

There have been 33 games of 300 bowled by American Junior Bowling Congress members.

Trenary To Open Against Perkins

TRENARY—With only two regulars back from 1968-69's 13-5 squad, the 1969-70 basketball season should prove to be a challenging one for Coach Steve Ellis and his Trenary Comets.

The Comets play in the Central League and they managed to finish in a second place tie with Big Bay de Noc last year. Ellis, who is beginning his ninth season at the helm of the Comets, feels that Big Bay will be the team to beat this year and Rock, Rapid River, Perkins and Eben would also have to be considered threats.

The Comets lost a lot of talent when Gary Hager, Tim Harris and Greg Begovac graduated but they should have enough back to make them threats for the league crown also. Don Sandstrom, a senior, and Dave Martin, a junior, are the only regulars returning along with reserves Herb Harris, a senior, and juniors Ken Mills, Gary Praznik, Allen Hager and Ty Cady.

Other players listed on the roster for the 1969-70 season are senior Dave Hoy, junior Mike Trudell and sophomore Bill Sandstrom. Sandstrom was the second leading scorer on last year's team with 213 points while Martin finished third with 210 and finishing third in the rebounding department with 151.

Martin, who goes about 6 feet, will get rebounding help this season from Mills and Hoy, who stand 6 feet 3 inches and 6 feet 2 inches respectively.

Trenary will open its season on the road against Perkins on Wednesday night. In addition to their 16-game schedule, the Comets will also defend its title in the Central League Holiday Tournament at Eben, which begins on Dec. 29 and ends on Jan. 3.

Ellis indicated on Monday that his starting lineup for Wednesday night's game would include Hoy, Don Sandstrom, Bill Sandstrom, Harris and Martin, while Hager, Praznik and Mills would also see plenty of action.

The Trenary schedule: Nov. 19—at Perkins; Nov. 21—at Grand Marais; Nov. 25—at Eben; Dec. 2—at Bark River; Dec. 9—Big Bay; Jan. 7—Perkins; Jan. 9—at Chassell; Jan. 13—at Rapid River; Jan. 16—Rock; Jan. 23—at Big Bay; Feb. 3—at Rock; Feb. 6—Chassell; Feb. 10—Rapid River; Feb. 13—Bark River; Feb. 20—Grand Marais; Feb. 24—Eben.

Tigers To Defend Conference Title

POWERS—With six lettermen back from last year's team, all indications seem to point to the fact that the Powers-Spalding Tigers appear to be headed towards another fine season on the hardwood during the 1969-70 campaign.

The Tigers, champions of the Skyline Conference and runner-up to State Class D champion Marquette Bishop Baraga in the regional tournament last season, will open the new season Friday night against conference opponent Channing with six lettermen back from last year's squad, including last season's top scorer and the top rebounder as well as five of the top seven players who put together an 18-5 record during 1968-69.

Heading the list of returnees are Dick Smith, top scorer on the 1968-69 team with 378 points, and Kim Riedy, the team's top rebounder last year with 189. Also back for another season are senior Bob Pirlet and juniors Bob Milecki, Don Sharkey and Lee Vincent.

Other players vying for a spot on the Powers-Spalding roster are senior Bill Sheeky and juniors John Anderson, Dave Behrend, Roger Kregelka and Michael St. John.

Coch Mike Forsberg feels that his team has the potential to be a very good one if the returning players learn to work together. "We have a good nucleus returning," said Forsberg, "but we must find a leader to replace Jack Fleetwood. Right now defense is our weak point and we must improve on it."

Sharkey is the tallest of this season's Tigers at 6 feet 3 inches while Riedy, 6 feet 2 inches, Vincent, 6 feet, St. John, 6 feet 1 inch, and Behrend, 6 feet, also go over the 6 foot mark.

Last season the Tigers averaged 71.9 points per game and this season should be just as good. In addition to Smith's 378 points last year, Riedy tossed in 283 and Milecki chipped in with 122.

Forsberg feels that Channing, Champion and Republic appear to be the teams to beat in the Skyline Conference race. Republic because it is a young club which came on strong at the end of last season; Channing because it has a good nucleus returning and Champion because of its size and good shooters.

The Powers-Spalding schedule:
Nov. 21—Channing
Nov. 25—at Felch
Dec. 2—Hermansville
Dec. 12—National Mine
Dec. 16—at Pembine

Perkins Wins Opener 64-40

GRAND MARAIS — The Perkins Yellowjackets, defending champions in the Central League, opened the 1969-70 basketball season with a 64-40 victory over Grand Marais Monday night.

Perkins jumped out to a seven-point lead in the first period and then put the game out of reach in the next two quarters by moving out in front by 24 points.

Ken Simonsen paced the Yellowjackets in the scoring department with 24 points while Bob VanDamme and Dwayne Couillard added 17 and 12 points respectively. Couillard is only a sophomore and Perkins' coach Verne Nelson feels that he will be a big help to the Yellowjackets this season.

Perkins also held a big edge in the rebounding department in the game as VanDamme pulled down 22 and Simonsen came up with 20. Tony Jodocy, another sophomore, helped out on the boards with 10 rebounds.

The Yellowjackets will open defense of their Central League crown Wednesday night when they play host to the Trenary Comets at the Perkins High School gym.

Two Gifts On Subscription Of 'Ranger Rick'

The U.S. Forest Service has purchased two four-year subscriptions to "Ranger Rick" magazine with the $50 they won for their first entry in the July 4 parade.

Presentation of the gift subscriptions — one to the local library and the other to the Cooks School library — was made by District Ranger Mel Gold. "Ranger Rick" carries educational articles and stories about nature.

Two memorial books have also been donated to the local library in memory of the late Benjamin Gero Jr. and Fred Bryant.

"Planning the Older Years," by Wilma Donahue and Clark Tibbitts, discusses gerontology and the needs of the elderly and is the Gero memorial.

"A White Pine Empire" by John Emmett Neilligan was presented as the Bryant memorial by his great-grandchildren and is an autobiographical account of the logging days of the '70s and Neilligan's years as camp cook, land-looker, logger, river boss, cutting contractor, woods foreman and buyer. The late Mr. Bryant spent 25 years in the logging business.

PTO Will Meet On Thursday

Hostesses will be the Garden School committee. A good attendance is urged.

1,800 Pounds Of Persuasion Seen Aiding New Zoo

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — The Kern County Zoological Society has 1,800 pounds of persuasion on its side in efforts to get a zoo established in this San Joaquin Valley community.

As president Richard Wolsten of the society put it: "For five years we batted our heads against a wall. And then, boom! All 1,800 pounds of him, along came Sam. He shows that you can fight city hall and win."

Sam is a hippopotamus, purchased by auto dealer John Barber and now temporarily housed at two converted stables at the old Kern County Fairgrounds.

"It struck me," Barber explained, "that with him on our side maybe we could get a zoo after all."

The county supervisors agreed to let Sam live at the fairgrounds pending a six-month study on the best location for a privately endowed zoo.

Sam meanwhile has become a local hero. Bumper stickers bearing his name are beginning to appear, along with others saying "Help feed Sam," "Zoo, where are you?" and "We need a zoo."

Romney Seen As Loser Vs. Hart

LANSING (AP) — A private Republican party poll shows U.S. Sen. Phil Hart would defeat former Gov. George Romney by a 2-1 margin if Romney makes a run for the Senate seat next year, the Detroit Free Press reports.

The paper, in its Tuesday edition, said Romney, while losing badly, was still the strongest of four prospective candidates.

The others were U. S. Rep. Don Riegle, Supreme Court Chief Justice Thomas E. Brennan and the late Dr. Leroy Augusten. Augusten was killed in a plane crash Nov. 8, after the survey was complete.

Romney, currently serving as Secretary of Housing and Urban Development in the Nixon administration, has said he is not a candidate for the Senate job but has also said he "has not closed the door" on the race.

The Free Press said the poll was conducted for the GOP by Market Opinion Research Inc. of Detroit.

UNUSUAL CHECK

BOLTON, England (AP) — The bank teller did a double take when students from Bolton Technical College presented a check for 100 pounds (£340). The check was made out between the upper and lower portions of shapely, 18-year-old Christine Bailey's bikini.

It was a stunt for the student's "Rag Week" (a charity fund-raising drive).

David Liprott, 25-year-old teller, decided the check was good. "It was one check which I examined more thoroughly than usual," he said. "And it was very nice too."

MANISTIQUE

GRAND PRIZE WINNER Susan Pirolo stands beside her winning poster which urges "Be With The 'In' Crowd — Read Books." Susan, fourth grade student at St. Francis School, chose Charley Brown characters to illustrate her poster. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dino Pirolo, 811 Main St. All 11 winners of the contest, open to grades one through six of all area schools, received their choice of a book at the library Monday afternoon. ## 'Great Decisions' Program Planned

What do you think about the political and social situations in Russia, Latin America, France, the Middle East and Japan? What opinions do you hold regarding the race problems in the U.S., our defense policy, etc.? How effective has the United Nations been considering the explosive world situation of today?

If you're interested in discussing these and other topics, get in touch with Community School Director Richard Bonifas who will schedule a "Great Decisions" program, if enough interest is shown.

Bonifas said the informal group discussions would span an eight-week period and would probably start in February. He may be contacted at 341-2195.

Bonifas also announced that Northern Michigan University will offer a special course, "Independent Study in Speech Pathology," to Schoolcraft-Delta county residents during the 1970 spring semester.

The first of the 16 sessions will be held Tuesday, Feb. 8 at 6:30 p.m. in Room 200 of the Manistique High School.

Hospital

Highway Dept. Using Glass On Paint Jobs

LANSING (AP) — About 372,000 gallons of paint and nearly two million pounds of tiny glass beads have been dropped on Michigan's roads, by the State Highway Department in recent months.

The material was used to repaint center lines and edge markings on 9,222 miles of state highways.

"Under winter driving conditions, when pavements are often wet or obscured by darkness, fog or blowing snow, the white reflectorized center lines and edge markings are a welcome aid to traffic safety and ease of driving," the department explains.

That's why the repainting is done before wintry weather sets in.

The department says the glass beads are dropped on the wet paint at the rate of six pounds per gallon, giving reflective qualities to the yellow or white paint used.

Each year, 7,952 miles of state highway in rural areas receive one coat of centerline paint. The 1,270 miles of urban highway — where traffic wear is greater — receive two coats.

The department, meanwhile, is experimenting with paints, plastic and new processes in hopes of improving highway safety with increasingly permanent and legible pavement markings.

Fast-drying paint, that dries track-free in 90 seconds, has proven successful, the department reports. "Its use eliminates the need for long lines of traffic cones behind the paint vehicle and causes less interference with traffic," the department says.

Other experiments with thermoplastic and cold plastic materials on urban highways and city streets where painted markings are quickly worn off also "show signs of promise," it says.

Detectives Find Dog Unfriendly

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Patrolman Armand W. Robinson's dog wasn't too upset recently when burglars looted the Robinson home.

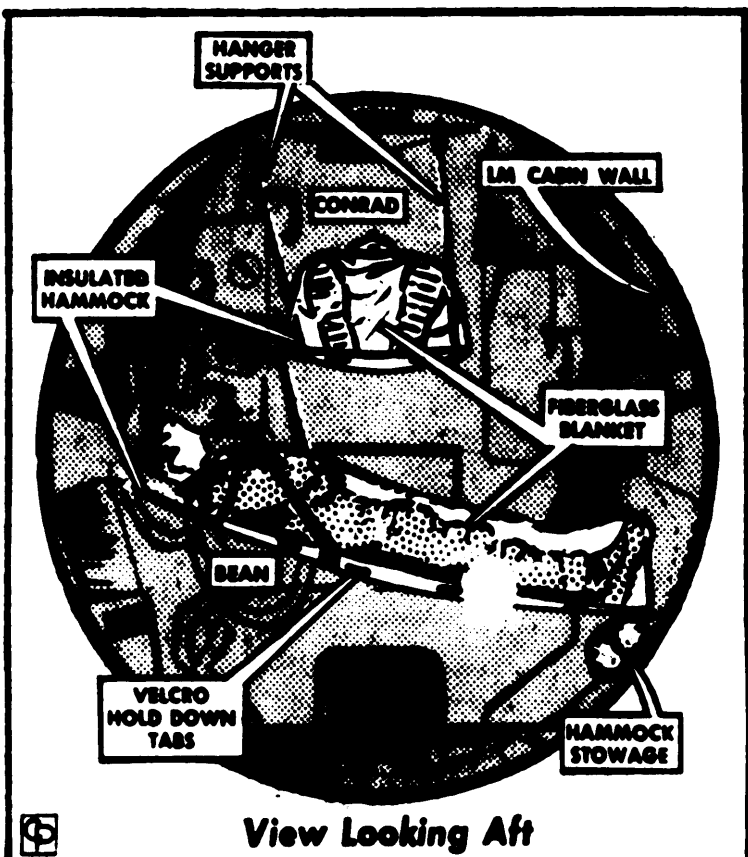

But Robinson had to lock the dog up later to keep him from attacking detectives investigating the burglary.

Robinson's gun belt, service revolver, chemical mace and handcuffs were among about $500 worth of items taken.

The patrolman said he found no evidence that his dog, Lobo, had struggled with the burglars.

Red China Takes Recruiting On Swipe At Soviet Over UN Inaction By State Police

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China denounced the Soviet Union today for not speaking out in its behalf during the U.N. debate which once again failed to get Peking an invitation to join the United Nations.

The Red Chinese accused the Russians of collaborating with Nationalist China and the United States to get the world to accept the existence of two Chinas.

The comment by Hsinhua, the New China News Agency, was Peking's first official expression on its rejection this year.

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State Police are on a recruiting drive.

Col. Fredrick Davids, department director, says interested young men may obtain applications and complete information about State Police candidacy by contacting their nearest State Police post or by writing the Michigan Civil Service Commission at Lansing.

Eligible to apply are men 21-30 years old, who are U.S. citizens and have been Michigan residents for at least one year. They also must have a high school education or its equivalent.

Candidates must be at least 5-feet, 9-inches tall and weigh 150-230 pounds, depending on height. Applicants may be married or single, must be in good physical condition and meet certain vision and hearing standards. They also must be "of good moral character" and have no serious arrest record.

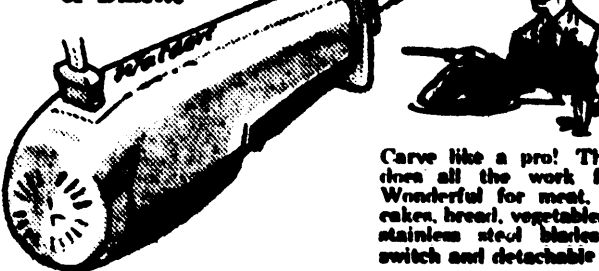

Davids said the examination process for prospective new troopers includes a written test, field investigation and appraisal, an oral appraisal at the East Lansing headquarters and a physicians examination at the time of reporting for recruit school.
